

Sinclair Broadcast Group's decision instructing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary "Stolen Honor" is a clear example of political bias in the media.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If Sinclair airs the documentary, they should also air the opposing view in the documentary "Going upriver".

Thank you.

Alfonso Avila

El Paso, TX